

Ectoplasm

From Satanism Wiki

Ectoplasm is a subsection of Ether, it is condensed Ether to the point it manifests in the world. All physical matter is this Ectoplasm manifesting in separate ways.

Like Ether, Ectoplasm has 4 main components. These components are Air, Water, Earth, Fire, and they act in the same way as the elements do. The key difference is of how they are made, while Fire can be separated from Ether, Ectoplasmic fire cannot. In Ectoplasm the pure form of the element must be added into the base of pure Ether.

Below are a few methods used to secret and use ectoplasm.

Black Sun Method

Visualize a sphere, with two layers an inner and outer.

Draw energy into the outer sphere in a counter-clockwise motion.

The outer layer makes energy purely electric, and the inner purely magnetic.

In the middle of the magnetic the energy condenses to near physical levels in the shape and how you want it.

Electric Method

This method works mainly for active people.

Raise energy and focus on the electric aspect of your energy.

Focus it into a ball which is spinning counter clockwise, there will be a magnetic pull from both hands.

Then imprint your desire into the centre of this ball.

Magnetic Method

This method works mainly for emotional people.

Raise energy and focus on the magnetic aspect of your energy.

Focus this into a ball and imprint your desire into the ball.

Serpent Method

The Serpent makes Ectoplasm as well, mainly at a Risen level and higher however. Just focusing on the Serpent will start forming Ectoplasm in the nearby vicinity of the Risen.
